September Meeting Demo

"My love of glass began with a simple glass fusing workshop 10 years ago. I have always loved art, but had never found my "art passion". I have painted in oils, watercolors, acrylics, beaded jewelry, dabbled in stained glass and everything else creative that came my way, but nothing ever impacted my creativity the way fused glass has. This medium challenges me to think outside the box constantly.

I have taken numerous workshops with national instructors, and try to take at least 2 workshops a year. I can proudly say I am not afraid of glass cuts, high temperatures or power tools!

A year ago, I was blessed with the invitation to join a wonderful group of artists at the Art Cottage. That blessing has blossomed into many friendships and artistic endeavors of which I am truly grateful.

I share my life with my husband of 36 years, Brian, 2 children, 2 granddaughters, 5 dogs and 2 cats. I continue to grow as an artist (I'm taking a welding class in September), and have recently received my real estate license. I am a Reiki practitioner and hope one day to be a Reiki master. I truly believe that within you lies the ability to accomplish your dreams. Glass has taught me that."

Demo synopsis:

Glass overview (types of glass used in kiln forming)
How to make a coral bowl demo including glass cutting, laying out of project, firing temperatures, slumping how to's, and finishing a project.

From the President...

THE UPSTAIRS GALLERIES

An invitation is going out to all New Braunfels Art League members to display their work upstairs in the Art Gallery. It is designed to expose every artist to the business of art, as well as an opportunity to test their artistic and marketing skills.

It is open to any non-displaying member for a three month period

By September 15, those selected will be able to bring their works to the gallery

The artist is eligible to display 2-D works that do not exceed 20 inches in width on a 7 ft. high wall.

Hanging wires will be provided so you may stack your artwork.

Display Guidelines for displaying docents will apply to works in the Upstairs Gallery

These directives are explained on our webpage. Go to the Membership tab and click on "Gallery Rules and Display Criteria." This title is printed in red.

Pages 5-8, specifically those listed in section "c", page 7, apply to displaying in the gallery,

The first group of 16 artists will be selected by lottery. To be included in the lottery, complete the attached inventory form and send it to Darryl Patrick darryllpatrick@gmail.com by September 1. If your name is drawn, you will be informed by September 15.

When bringing your artwork to the gallery on Thursday, September 29, from 9:00-11:00 am, your inventory form will be available but you will need to fill out labels for your work. These labels will be provided.

There will be no requirement to work one day per month, it will be purely voluntary. You may be asked to fill in for a missing docent if you are available. It will be an opportunity to sell your work personally if you are working in the gallery. Should you chose to work you will assist the docents in their duties.

There will be no display fee and the usual 25% of the sales price will be retained by the gallery.

At the end of the three month period there may be some adjustment to the above instructions.

STUDENT WALL

A section of the wall upstairs will be reserved for our teachers to display their students works.

This is the space to the right of the doors leading to the workshop area.

All works will be displayed in a professional manner, guided by their instructor and the "Gallery Rules and Display Criteria". These rules are found on our webpage under the membership tab.

Adult students will price their works and may assist docents one day a month as desired. When preparing their artwork, an inventory sheet and title card(s) will be required.

Keep Creating Beautiful Art,

Arlene
